NPTGS gets fresh start thanks to new funding

Mike Di of the Cariboo Gold Rush Trail Society was on hand to accept one of the Historic Places Trust of BC (HPTB) grants for the HBC Heritage Trail (HHT) project. The $1.9 million project will open up a 234 km trail between the多地 and Lillooet, which will allow visitors to explore the history and culture of the region.

The HHT is part of a larger trail network, called the Gold Rush/Spirit Trails Corridor, which connects Nicola (of Kumsheen Rafting) was an excel-

Alexandra Bridge Site Project workshop sees big buy-in

The Alexandra Bridge Project got a big boost from the Saskatchewan First Nation (SFN) in the form of a $1 million investment. The project aims to create a heritage site at the Alexandra Bridge, which spans the Fraser River and connects the Cariboo and Monashee regions.

A new partnership between the NPTGS and SFN will help fund the project, which includes the construction of a new bridge, a museum, and the development of heritage trails. The project is expected to create jobs and generate economic opportunities for the SFN and the local community.

The Alexandra Bridge Site Project workshop saw a big buy-in from stakeholders, including First Nations, local governments, and business leaders. The workshop was held in Coquitlam, BC, and was facilitated by the NPTGS.

HBC Heritage Trail grand opening double the fun

A huge crowd turned out for the double grand opening of the Victoria Day long weekend for the Victoria Day long weekend and the Alexandra Bridge Site Project workshop. The event was held in Coquitlam, BC, and was attended by hundreds of people.

The Victoria Day long weekend event featured a ribbon-cutting ceremony, live music, and traditional First Nations performances. The Alexandra Bridge Site Project workshop included discussions on the project's vision, goals, and next steps.

Multicultural Director Lily Chow a tireless worker

Lily Chow is the Multicultural Director at the New Pathways to Gold Society (NPTGS). She is responsible for developing programs and initiatives that promote multiculturalism and diversity in the region.

Lily has been with NPTGS for over 10 years and has made a significant impact on the organization. She is well-respected for her tireless work and dedication to the community.

NPTGS gets new website

The NPTGS got a new website, www.goldcountry.bc.ca. The site features information on the history and culture of the region, as well as details on the Gold Rush/Spirit Trails Corridor.

The website includes a blog, where Lily shares her thoughts and insights on the project. The site also features a calendar, where visitors can find out about upcoming events.

For more information, please visit the NPTGS website.

Cedar-bamboo home review a hit

The Cedar-bamboo Home Review was a hit with visitors from all over the globe. The event was held in Vancouver, BC, and featured a variety of bamboo products and services.

The event was organized by the Chinese Canadian Museum in Vancouver. Visitors had the opportunity to see and touch bamboo products, and learn about the cultural and ecological significance of bamboo.

The reviews were positive, and many visitors expressed interest in learning more about bamboo and its uses.

For more information, please visit the Chinese Canadian Museum in Vancouver.

The New Pathways to Gold Society is a community-based organization dedicated to continued research, education, and promotion of the heritage/recreation assets in the Gold Country. We are grateful for the support of our partners, including the Government of Canada, the Province of British Columbia, and the City of Hope.

For more information, please visit our website, www.goldcountry.bc.ca.